THE TIMES.
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 4, 1907.

PARKSVILLE.

Mr. Barnum, president of the Kentucky, informs your correspondent that it will require $5,000 to complete the buildings and the new and up-to-date machinery will be a very important feature of the institution. He will ask of the Legislature at least an appropriation of $75,000. Let us hope that the public will favor by their votes and influence a liberal appropriation, for the training of worthy young men and women in the mechanic arts is one of the most important features of the institution. We need scholarship, but not such only.

Mr. Lewis D. Jones, of Red Cross, was also among the visitors to Parksville last week. Mr. Jones is one of the old land marks of the county and is now living on the old homestead. There are but few of the old citizens left. Time and death have taken away most of the old settlers of the county. Mr. Jones is one of the few that are left.

Mr. Ben Anderson, Jr., who has been confined to his room for several weeks with typhoid fever, is able to be out again